DETAILED ACTION

The argument in the appeal brief filed 9/4/03 has overcome the rejection of the previous office action. The finality of the previous office action is withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-7 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claimed invention is a method for insulating a lower layer of a semiconductor device from an upper layer of the semiconductor device comprising the sequential steps of:

- a. providing an interlayer dielectric on the lower layer;
- b. providing an antireflective coating (ARC) layer, at least a portion of the ARC layer being on the interlayer dielectric;
- c. providing a plurality of via holes in the interlayer dielectric and the ARC layer;
- d. filling the plurality of via holes with a conductive material; and
- e. removing the ARC layer while reducing subsequent undesirable charge gain and subsequent undesirable charge loss over the use of a chemical mechanical polish in removing the ARC layer.

Reference Feldner et al. disclose the method of insulating the lower layer of a semiconductor device from the upper layer. However, Feldner et al. do not disclose the step of removing the ARC layer while reducing subsequent undesirable charge gain and subsequent undesirable charge loss over the use of a chemical mechanical polish in removing the ARC layer.

Reference Wu et al. disclose the method of insulating the lower layer of a semiconductor device from the upper layer. However, Feldner et al. do not disclose the step of removing the ARC layer while reducing subsequent undesirable charge gain and subsequent undesirable charge loss over the use of a chemical mechanical polish in removing the ARC layer.

Therefore, the above references do not disclose the claimed invention of present application and claims 1-7 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
